

I will agree with this bandplan as DXing on 160M is quite a challenge, due to MF frequencies, local and atmospheric noise and a typical Ham radio station limitations on antenna construction. Now my complaint would be on contest weekends. The CW and digital modes must not spread above 1840 KHZ interfering with normal AM and SSB voice communications as they presently do.